exhibits

- 2019 Curator, *Innovating STS, <https://stsinfrastructures.org/content/innovating-sts/essay>. Innovating STS showcases innovations in STS as well as ways “innovation” has been studied, conceptualized, practiced, and critiqued. Aiming to deepen the transnational character of STS, Innovating STS exhibits convey diverse ways “innovation” has been an organizing rubric in different settings as well as how STS itself has been built and innovated in different settings.
- 2018 Curator, *STS Across Borders, <https://stsinfrastructures.org/content/sts-across-borders-0/essay>. STS Across Borders showcases how STS has developed across time and space, and the structures, infrastructures, and systems that have allowed—or worked against—the cultivation of STS modes of thinking.

digital platforms

- 2018 Platform Director, STS Infrastructures (<https://stsinfrastructures.org>), a digital archive, work space, and publishing platform for Science and Technology Studies (STS) scholars which hosts digital collections that explore how science, other forms of knowledge, technology, and culture entwine and develop in different contexts.
